

Meadows Valley School District Wide Parental Involvement Policy

2009-10 School Year

As Required by the Idaho State Department of Education

PART I. GENERAL EXPECTATIONS

The Meadows Valley School District agrees to implement the following statutory requirements:

- The school district will put into operation programs, activities, and procedures for the involvement of parents in all of its school with Title I, Part A programs, consistent with section 1118 of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA). Those programs, activities, and procedures will be planned and operated with meaningful consultation with parents of participating children.
- Consistent with section 1118, the school district will work with its school to ensure that the required school-level parental involvement policies meet the requirements of section 1118(b) of the ESEA, and each include, as a component, a school-parent compact consistent with section 1118(d) of the ESEA.
- The school district will incorporate this district wide parental involvement policy into its LEA plan developed under section 1112 of the ESEA.
- In carrying out the Title I, Part A parental involvement requirements, to the extent practicable, the school district and its schools will provide full opportunities for the participation of parents with limited English proficiency, parents with disabilities, and parents of migratory children, including providing information and school reports required under section 1111 of the ESEA in an understandable and uniform format and, including alternative formats upon request, and, to the extent practicable, in a language parents understand.
- If the LEA plan for Title I, Part A, developed under section 1112 of the ESEA, is not satisfactory to the parents of participating children, the school district will submit any parent comments with the plan when the school district submits the plan to the Idaho State Department of Education.
- The school district will involve the parents of children served in Title I, Part A schools in decisions about how the 1 percent of Title I, Part A funds reserved for parental involvement is spent, and will ensure that not less than 95 percent of the one percent reserved goes directly to the schools.

- The school district will be governed by the following statutory definition of parental involvement, and expects that its Title I schools will carry out programs, activities and procedures in accordance with this definition:

Parental involvement means the participation of parents in regular, two-way, and meaningful communication involving student academic learning and other school activities, including ensuring—

- (A) that parents play an integral role in assisting their child's learning;*
- (B) that parents are encouraged to be actively involved in their child's education at school;*
- (C) that parents are full partners in their child's education and are included, as appropriate, in decision-making and on advisory committees to assist in the education of their child;*
- (D) the carrying out of other activities, such as those described in section 1118 of the ESEA.*

PART II. DESCRIPTION OF HOW DISTRICT WILL IMPLEMENT REQUIRED DISTRICT WIDE PARENTAL INVOLVEMENT POLICY COMPONENTS

1. The Meadows Valley School District will take the following actions to involve parents in the joint development of its district wide parental involvement plan under section 1112 of the ESEA:
 - Include parent representation from the onset of the development of the plan.
 - Hold a series of accessible meetings with parents and guardians to develop and review the parent involvement policy.
2. The Meadows Valley School District will take the following actions to involve parents in the process of school review and improvement under section 1116 of the ESEA:
 - Parents will be involved in reviewing and updating Title I Targeted Assistance and School-wide program plans.
 - Actively recruit parents with particular attention to parents who are economically disadvantaged, are disabled, have limited English proficiency, have limited literacy, are migratory, or are of any racial, cultural, or ethnic minority background.
 - Provide assistance and training to parents to prepare them for meaningful participation.

- ELL and migratory parents will be included in decision-making related to the needs of their children and the use of Title IC and/or Title II funds.

3. The Meadows Valley School District will provide the following necessary coordination, technical assistance, and other support to assist Title I, Part A schools in planning and implementing effective parental involvement activities to improve student academic achievement and school performance:
 - Designate a parent involvement coordinator.
 - Pay reasonable and necessary expenses associated with parental involvement activities, including transportation and child care costs, to enable parents to participate in school related meetings and training sessions.
 - Adopt a model for approaches to improve parent involvement at the school level.

4. The Meadows Valley School District will coordinate and integrate parental involvement strategies in Part A with parental involvement strategies under the following other programs: Developmental Preschool, Head Start, Parents as Teachers, local preschools, by:
 - Coordinate or share parent involvement activities

5. The Meadows Valley School District will take the following actions to conduct, with the involvement of parents, an annual evaluation of the content and effectiveness of this parental involvement policy in improving the quality of its Title I, Part A schools. The evaluation will include identifying barriers to greater participation by parents in parental involvement activities (with particular attention to parents who are economically disadvantaged, are disabled, have limited English proficiency, have limited literacy, or are of any racial or ethnic minority background). The school district will use the findings of the evaluation about its parental involvement policy and activities to design strategies for more effective parental involvement, and to revise, if necessary (and with the involvement of parents) its parental involvement policies.
 - Evaluation to be conducted by distribution of a yearly survey to parents of students involved in Federal Title programs.
 - Title I administrator/teacher/s will conduct the survey.
 - Identify barriers to parent participation.
 - Evaluate content and effectiveness of parent involvement policy.

PART III. HOW THE SCHOOL DISTRICT WILL BUILD CAPACITY FOR PARENTAL INVOLVEMENT

1. The Meadows Valley School District will build the schools' and parent's capacity for strong parental involvement, in order to ensure effective involvement of parents and to support a partnership among the school involved, parents, and the community to improve student academic achievement, through the following activities specifically described below:

- A. The school district will, with the assistance of its Title I, Part A schools, provide assistance to parents of children served by the school district or school, as appropriate, in understanding topics such as the following:
- the State's academic content standards,
 - the State's student academic achievement standards,
 - the State and local academic assessments including alternate assessments,
 - the requirements of Part A,
 - how to monitor their child's progress, and
 - how to work with educators:
- B. The school district will, with the assistance of its schools, provide materials and training to help parents work with their children to improve their children's academic achievement, such as literacy training, and using technology, as appropriate, to foster parental involvement, by:
- inviting parents to appropriate training events
 - inviting parents to Title I related events and training/s.
- C. The school district will, with the assistance of its schools and parents, educate its teachers, pupil services personnel, principals and other staff, in how to reach out to, communicate with, and work with parents as equal partners, in the value and utility of contributions of parents, and in how to implement and coordinate parent programs and build ties between parents and schools.
- D. The school district will, to the extent feasible and appropriate, coordinate and integrate parental involvement programs and will conduct other activities, such as providing parents with resource which encourage and support parents in more fully participating in the education of their children.
- E. The school district will take the following actions to ensure that information related to the school and parent- programs, meetings, and other activities, is sent to the parents of participating children in an understandable and uniform format, including alternative formats upon request, and, to the extent practicable, in a language the parents can understand:

- provide translators at school required and invitational meetings, parent meetings, and parent teacher conferences, to the extent feasible and appropriate.
- provide translated forms and documents for NCLB related activities and programs and other programs as feasible and appropriate.
