

Ashley Evertson has been named October Student of the Month at Meadows Valley High School. Evertson is a senior who has attended MV schools since kindergarten. "She is very involved in school related governance earning her respect from her peers, teachers and community members. Ashley is always busy with some school related activity. She is positive and a great leader," MV Vice Principal Rob Campbell said. Some of her leadership roles include: class officer, Mountaineer Pride, SADD, Academic Decathlon, Green Earth and MV Student Body President. She has a 3.68 GPA. She has participated in volleyball and been named Outstanding Pep Band, Algebra and Biology Student and awarded the AAUW Science Achievement Recognition certificate. She has also received the School Service Award and an invitation to attend the National Young Leaders Conference. Her hobbies and interests are many. She is a licensed Emergency Medical Responder and ATSSA traffic flagger. She enjoys reading, doing community service, traveling, taking part in student government and leadership positions and walking with her dog Zeus. Ashley wants to attend LCSC and get her BA in Social Work and Master degree in Sociology. For employment after college graduation, she wants to work with Special Education students.
